

WHY GUN CONTROL IS NOT RATIONAL

1. It is based upon isolated instances of pain rather than over-all community or national gain.
2. It is a temporary solution to a long-term problem.
3. It protects a few while exposing many.
4. It is emotionally based rather than rationally based.
5. It is a willingness to sacrifice long-term freedom for short-term peace.
6. It shifts moral responsibility from immoral man to inanimate objects.
7. It promises short-term hope while threatening long-term horror.
8. It is based upon politics and pragmatism rather than principle.
